Militia May Be Summoned to Handle the Situation.

STANDARD OIL CO. GUARDS ATTACKED

Sheriff Admits Inability to Handle 1,500 Desperate Men.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Whether militia would be called out to preserve order was the question tonight in Bayonne, where two more men were killed today in fights between striking employees of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and armed guards, bringing the total deaths up to three since the inception of the strike.

Sheriff Eugene Kinkadee, who had worked earnestly to pacify the strikers, called on Governor J. F. Fielder for troops when he was jeered by crowds after the battle. Wilbur F. Sadler, adjutant general of New Jersey, was ordered to Bayonne and on his report resists the calling of the militia.

Later Sheriff Kinkadee appealed to Washington for federal mediators, and two were expected to reach Bayonne tonight.

Men May Arbitrate.

A development tonight which may help to end the strike or bring a truce was the acceptance by the strikers of an offer of the five city commissioners to act as arbitrators. The strikers demand a 15 per cent increase in wages. The bill which followed the serious disorder of yesterday, in which one youth was killed, was dissipated shortly before noon today when several hundred of the 1,500 strikers attacked the guards at the Standard plant. The guards, filled with volleys from their Winchester and three men had been wounded seriously when the crowd retreated after two attempts to approach the plant.

John Surgen, a former soldier in the Austrian army, was seen in the afternoon while leading this assault, and may die.

The next and most serious attack was on the Tidewater Oil company's barrel works a short distance from the Standard plant. It lasted a half hour. Two of the attacking party, Stanley Murheko, aged 29, and Nicolas Iwaszko, 19, were killed by bullets and three others were injured seriously. The guards inside the plant stood their ground and the attackers backed away. It was said none of the guards was wounded.

Asked for Troops. Sheriff Kinkadee then made an unsuccessful attempt to have the strikers disperse by a personal appeal, but was hooted and jeered. He decided the situation was beyond control and asked for troops.

Later in the day guards within the Tidewater works fired on a crowd of 150 persons outside the works and the latter replied with revolvers. No injuries were reported.

Some excitement was caused early tonight when news of the crowd near the plants began fighting among themselves and a man suspected of being a guard was rescued by five motorcycle police. Examination at a hospital showed the man's condition to be serious.

There was an outbreak of fires around the plants today, one of which was believed to have been started by the throwing of burning oil soaked waste over the walls. This menaced the large oil tanks and the safety of the guards, but was easily extinguished, as were all the other fires. Although none of the fires was serious they were pointed to as an

GRIEF CAUSED A SUICIDE

Mrs. Vernon's Husband Was Lost With the Steamship Lusitania.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Grief over the death of her husband, George L. Vernon, a film manufacturer, who went down with the Lusitania, was believed to have caused the suicide of Mrs. Inez Vernon, whose body was found in her apartment here today. She evidently had shot herself several days ago.

Mrs. Vernon was a sister of Rita Jolivet, the motion picture actress, who was saved from the Lusitania.

BIG OKLAHOMA COAL DEAL

Dow Company Taken from the Hands of Receivers.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD. MALESTER, Okla., July 22.—The biggest deal in the Oklahoma coal fields in the past three years occurred today when C. W. Dawley, with McAlester and Texas associates, purchased the property of the Dow Coal company at Savana, taking it out of the bankruptcy court to prevent sale. The consideration is approximately $50,000. Creditors are to get fifty cents on the dollar. A new company is being formed to operate the mines, which have been closed since February. Four hundred miners who have been idle there will be re-employed.

Here Are Four of the Winners of the Prizes in Bathing Costumes on Exhibition at One of the Popular New York Beaches; Step up Madam, and Take Your Choice

PRIZE WINNING BATHING COSTUMES

THESE four original bathing costumes were awarded the prizes at a bathing suit contest held at one of the popular New York beaches. At the left is the most practical bathing suit—a black jersey sweater with brilliant line skirt, cut very short and with a wide girdle of Roman stripes. Next is the most daring—a one-piece suit of black jersey, trimmed with yellow chainmail. Next is the most beautiful costume—yellow braided satin with paillettes of yellow silk ruffled at the knee and with black piping. At the right is the most original costume—black chainmail over Alice blue satin riding trousers, buttoned over the knee like riding breeches. The effect was exceedingly smart. Twenty costumes in all were submitted for approval.

STATISTICS GIVEN STATE ERRONEOUS

Will Amount to Millions in Final Railroad Valuation.

SYMANS TESTIFIES

Judge Youmans Is Anxious to Finish Hearing Promptly.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 22.—Testifying in behalf of the four railroads composing the plaintiffs in the suit against the state of Oklahoma to establish a three-cent rate in this state, W. E. Symans of Chicago, expert engineer, testified in federal court Thursday that statistics submitted by the railroads to the state regarding valuations of service were in error as regards terminal and line expenses. This error will amount to millions of dollars in the final valuation of railroads in Oklahoma, according to the opinion expressed by attorneys for the state.

The witness occupied the stand throughout the afternoon, being under cross-examination on testimony given at the March hearing of the case. In several instances the witness testified that he had been in error regarding the apportionment of service values, especially in regard to through freight trains.

Relative effects of repairs to different locomotive parts in percentage of line and terminal expenses to arrive at valuation of passenger train service in the state, was gone into at length and developed the most interesting situation since the hearing began.

Judge Frank A. Youmans stated Thursday morning that it is his desire to finish the case at this sitting of the court, as it probably will be carried for years in any other event. He asked for the assistance of the attorneys in this. The court can remain in session until the last of September.

Killed Wife and Himself.

WINTERSET, Iowa, July 22.—Miles Young sr., aged 70, a grain elevator owner, shot and fatally wounded his wife, aged 60, at their home here, and then killed himself. Despondency brought on by ill health is said to have been the cause of Young's act.

BURGLARS RANSACK DEACONESS' HOME

Broke Down Door During Church Service Next Door.

SYMANS TESTIFIES

Judge Youmans Is Anxious to Finish Hearing Promptly.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

Burglars battered in the front door of the Deaconess' home, half a block from Main street, early last night and searched the house for valuables, while the two women who stay in the home were attending prayer meeting in the basement of the First Methodist church, just around the corner.

An hour after the robbery was reported the police arrested Albert Gage, notorious young house prowler, in a resort on East First street. He had had time to get to the resort from the scene of the burglary. He told the officers he arrived in the city yesterday from Joplin and was intending to get a train out of town last night. He is being held as a suspect.

Gage, whose parents live at Holdenville, has served a term in the state reformatory. He has been arrested here on numerous occasions.

Ask President for More Pay. WASHINGTON, July 22.—Tonight President Wilson began consideration of a request of machinists employed at the Washington navy yard that he increase their pay and thereby overrule Secretary Daniels, who has taken the position that he can do nothing until a wage board meets in December to consider the question. Mr. Wilson is expected to reach a decision tomorrow.

ONLY 3 BIDS FOR HIGH SCHOOL LOTS

The Board's Little Scheme Proves To Be Real Balloon Ascension.

SYMANS TESTIFIES

Judge Youmans Is Anxious to Finish Hearing Promptly.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

I school is not a blowed-up proposition, the action of the school board last night is no criterion to judge by. Only three bids were submitted to lease different parcels of the entire block and were not competitive, and they evidently were a serious disappointment to the advocates of leasing the ground for business purposes. The bids were from Dan Hunt, C. A. Sanderson and a firm styling itself the Southwest Brokerage company.

Evidently the bids were a complete disappointment to the advocates of moving the high school and not to appear as having been defeated those present at the board meeting refused to give them out to the public or to make any statement except that the

TURNED INFORMER TO GET REVENGE

"If These Coppers Hadn't Shot Me Last Fall, They Wouldn't Be On Trial Now."

CHICAGO, July 22.—Revenge prompted Christian P. Bertache to turn informer, according to his admission on cross-examination today in the trial of bribery charges against former Detective Sergeant Walter O'Brien and William Egan. "If the city detectives had not shot me last fall, these two coppers would not be on trial," said the confessed "fizzer" for the clairvoyant Frank and James Ryan are expected to take the stand after the cross-examination of Bertache is completed. They will tell of the business organization of "the trust."

DIACONIA ARE STANDING FIRM NEAR WARSAW

Getmans Make No Serious Breach in Fortified Lines.

SAFETY OF ARMIES ALARMS NICHOLAS

Capture of Men Would Offset Possible Capture of City.

LONDON, July 22.—The Austro-German armies continue to press the Russian forces defending Warsaw, and, while they have made progress at some points, they have not yet made any serious breach in the well fortified inner lines defending that city.

The Russians, it is true, have been pressed back to the bridgehead positions directly west of Warsaw and into the fortress of Ivangorod, further to the southeast on the Vistula. But at these points they probably are in a better position to offer stubborn resistance to their opponents.

The two attacks from the north along the Narew river by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and that which Field Marshal Von Mackensen is directing from the southeast between the Vistula and Bug rivers, apparently have been held up, or the Germans are waiting for an opportune moment to move forward and catch the Russian armies, should it be decided to evacuate Warsaw. At any rate the Berlin official statement does not claim any advance for Von Mackensen, while the report, although it states that the Russians have caused their counterattacks along the Narew, does not mention any success on the part of Von Hindenburg.

Must Save Armies. However, should the Russians hold Warsaw, it would surprise the military critics in the allied countries, who have discounted the loss of the city, attacked from all sides by opponents possessed of superiority in guns and ammunition.

Grand Duke Nicholas, although able to deliver some stinging counterattacks and inflicting heavy losses on the Austro-Germans, must, in the first place, consider the safety of his armies, the loss of which would be much more serious for the Russians than retirement from the Polish capital and the territory around it.

In the region of Shavli, on the Dubysa river, and on the Marlapol-Kovno road the Germans claim successes, but nothing is said of the fighting nearer Ilya, for which city another German army is trying.

The Argonne and the Vosges still are the scenes of severe fighting in the west. The accounts from the opposite sides are as contradictory as ever, but it would appear that the French are the aggressors in the Vosges and have made some progress and the Germans have offset this by a partially successful offensive in the Argonne.

The Italians continue their attacks along the Isonzo, the battle for the conquest of Gorizia and the Carso plateau assuming larger proportions and more men being engaged than in any previous battle on the Italian front. The Italians claim progress, while the Austrians consistently report that attacks are repulsed.

A short official account issued tonight of recent fighting on the Galipoli peninsula indicates that the en-

ASKS FOR TIME ON THE OSAGE LEASES

Wants 30 Days Grace Before New Regulations Go Into Effect.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

PAWUSKA, July 22.—Secretary Lane today wire the Osage council, asking its consent to extend the time for acceptance of new regulations for 30 days from August 1. The council consented, which assures the extension. The council is in session considering new regulations and sentiment seems to be in favor of kicking over the whole program agreed to last month and renewing all subleases in Osage on payment of bonus and one-sixth royalty, but nothing definite will be done till somebody comes along with the bonus proposition and submits it. The Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company and Osage are offering to build a manufacturing plant at Pawhuska with monthly payroll of $50,000 if given lease on lands in western part of reservation, but they have received no answer yet.

What Girls Will Win the Diamond and Cameo Rings

ROTARIAN FRIEDMAN, IN ORDER TO STIMULATE INTEREST IN TICKET SELLING FOR BASEBALL GAME BENEFIT TO DEFECTION HOME WILL GIVE AWAY TWO VALUABLE AND BEAUTIFUL PRESENTS TO TWO GETTING THE MOST MONEY.

Many Tulsans were yesterday waiting for an opportunity to purchase tickets to the baseball game to be played at Association park next Saturday for the benefit of the Defection home, but they were disappointed on account of the small number of young women who volunteered their services to assist the Rotary club in disposing of tickets for the affair.

Rotarian C. J. Friedman, in charge of the benefit game, decided last night to continue the sale of tickets until 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. He has offered, as a personal gift to the two girls who sell the most tickets, two costly rings, one a diamond and the other a cameo. These rings are now on display in a show window of the Friedman jewelry store, at which place those who wish to help the cause along may register and secure their tickets any time today. It is hoped that a large number of young women will appear there at 3 o'clock this morning to sell tickets.

Give Away Rings Saturday. All those who have assisted in the campaign thus far had good luck and will continue the work until Saturday.

OKLAHOMA FATHER AND SON ROB BANK

Stuff $900 In Sack, Mount Their Horses and Escape.

ELUDE A BIG POSSE

Cashier and Customer at Niotaze, Kan., Locked in Vault.

SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., July 22.—The State bank at Niotaze, Kan., 20 miles west of here, was robbed about 3 o'clock this afternoon by two men, supposed to be Linde Higgins and his son, Elmer, living near Copan, Okla., just across the state line. A farmer who saw the two men ten minutes after the robbery occurred gave a description which tallies exactly with that of the two Higgins. Both father and son have long criminal records and both have served state prison terms.

Forest J. Ehrhart, cashier of the bank, and Charles D. Armour, a farmer, were alone in the bank when the two men entered and commanded them to hold up their hands, backing up their order with a thirty-eight revolver and a rifle. Then after rifling the safe of 1909 in currency, which they stuffed into a sack, Ehrhart and Armour were shoved into the vault and locked in. The two men walked down the main street of Niotaze a block to where their horses were tied, and mounting rode south towards the state line. Ten minutes later a farmer entering the bank heard the cries of the imprisoned men and with the aid of Ehrhart succeeded in turning the combination and liberating the pair.

Sheriff Powell of Chautauqua county was notified and started at once in pursuit, accompanied by a large posse. At 3 o'clock tonight the men had not been captured, and it is believed they have reached the Osage hills in safety. The Elmer Higgins is about 45 years old, and has sandy hair. His son is about 18, but looks considerably older.

LEO FRANK RECOVERING FAST

Temperature Has Returned to Normal; Physicians Stop Bulletins.

MILLEDGEVILLE, July 22.—Leo M. Frank's condition has improved so much that further official bulletins will not be issued unless there should be a pronounced change, it was announced tonight by physicians attending him at the Georgia prison farm here.

Inflammation resulting from the knife wound in Frank's throat decreased materially today, and his temperature was within one degree of normal.

WANTED TO RIDDLE MEXICANS

Southern Pacific Officials Asked for Loan of Machine Gun.

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 22.—C. M. Scott, local superintendent of the Southern Pacific railroad, telephoned today to Charles W. Harris, adjutant general of the Arizona national guard, offering to purchase for $1,000 apiece four machine guns for use in protecting the property of the company at Nogales, Sonora, where a battle between Carranza and Villa forces is imminent. The offer was refused, as the guns belonged to the government.

WILSON'S LAST WORD IS ON ITS WAY TO BERLIN

Kaiser Is Warned Against Further Transgressions.

GREAT BRITAIN TO RECEIVE ATTENTION

Another Disaster Will Mean a Congressional Session.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The United States government before determining the next step in its general diplomatic policy will for a brief period await indications from official quarters in Berlin as to the reception of the new note, warning Germany that the loss of American lives through further violation of neutral rights would be regarded as "unfriendly."

The note, started on its way to Berlin late last night, probably will be delivered by Ambassador Gerard tomorrow. It will be given out by the state department for publication in Saturday morning newspapers.

Everywhere in official quarters it was pointed out today that the document speaks the final word on how the United States government would regard further transgressions of its rights. The general trend of comment was that the repetition of such a disaster as befell the Lusitania would mean the convening of congress by President Wilson for consideration of the action to be taken.

Great Britain Next.

In the event that the status quo is maintained, however, and there are indications through official or unofficial channels that German submarines in the Atlantic will conform to the rules of international law in saving the lives of Americans on unresisting merchantmen, President Wilson will take up very soon the situation that has arisen with Great Britain over interference with American commerce by the action to be taken.

For several weeks a note has been practically completed almost ready to be sent to the British government reiterating the protest against deviations from international law in the operations of the order in council against commerce with Germany. The note has not been sent because President Wilson has been unwilling to give the impression in Berlin that the controversy between the United States and Germany is resolved in a friendly spirit and there appears no intention further to violate neutral rights on the high seas the new protest to Great Britain will be discussed probably within the next fortnight.

In the event that the status quo is maintained, however, and there are indications through official or unofficial channels that German submarines in the Atlantic will conform to the rules of international law in saving the lives of Americans on unresisting merchantmen, President Wilson will take up very soon the situation that has arisen with Great Britain over interference with American commerce by the action to be taken.

The recent filing of a legal caveat announcing that orders in council and British municipal law do not affect the rights of American citizens under international law, was the first step in the policy which the United States is pursuing to obtain acquiescence in its point of view.

Interest centered for the most part today in official and diplomatic quarters on the nature of the new note to Germany. Sufficiency of its contents has become known to cause widespread comment on the apparently determined position taken by the United States.

No progress has been made in the investigation of the case of the British liner Orduna, at which a German submarine is alleged to have fired a torpedo without warning. No evidence has been received to establish beyond doubt that the torpedo was fired, and until this is available, the case probably would not be pressed. None of the American passengers were awake at the time of the attack, and the state department, it is said, is reluctant to act on what might be construed as partisan testimony such as the statements of the officers and crews of a British vessel. As yet no report has been asked from Ambassador Gerard at Berlin because a prima facie case has not been established.

SUBMARINES TAKING A REST

No British Vessels Have Been Sunk During Past Week.

LONDON, July 22.—As far as British vessels are concerned, the German submarines drew a blank during the week ending yesterday. Not a single British merchant ship or fishing craft was sunk. This was the first week since the beginning of the war that some loss to British shipping has not been occasioned by either German submarines, mines, or submarines. During the week under review 1,325 vessels of more than 200 tons each arrived at or departed from ports of the United Kingdom.
